TRIABUNNA is officially Australia's tidiest town.

The East Coast village was named Tasmania's tidiest town in September and took out the Australian Tidy Town Awards' major gong in Western Australia on Friday.

Glamorgan Spring Bay mayor Michael Kent said the win was an "absolutely sensational result".

"We sent a couple of our people there on Friday night and lo and behold, Triabunna won the national title and this time next year the finals will be held in Triabunna," Cr Kent said.
